The May meeting was a special Saturday luncheon at Reds Old 395. After a nice time of socializing and meal ordering, the meeting was called to order at noon by President Jane Johnson. We began with introductions all around, including our two new scholarship winners, Sabrina Cacioppo and Serena Herup, both of whom are seniors at Carson High. Sabrina will begin her college courses at WNC. She plans to be an elementary school teacher, and hopes to instill confidence and promote lifelong learning in each student. Serena also plans to attend UNR to become a teacher. Serena has been very involved in a variety of activities while in school including being a Link Crew leader, working with the Make-A-Wish Foundation and Macy's Believe Campaign. She has also been a victim of bullying, which she took as an opportunity to change herself and learn from the experience.

The meals were served.

Jane reviewed the six major areas in which AAUW awards fellowships and grants to women nationally and internationally. These are:

- Fellowships, since 1888
- Career development grants
- Community action grants
- International fellowships
- International project grants
- Selected profession scholarships for careers where women are underrepresented

Flo Bedrosian presided over the installation of new officers. These include:

- Jane Johnson – President
- Caroline PUNCHES – VP for Membership
- Phyllis Tirado –Treasurer
- JoAnn Carpenter – Recording Secretary
- Mary Wilson – Corresponding Secretary
- Nancy Stiles – VP for Program Planning
- Peggy Wozniak – VP for Program Venues

Bobbie Williams conducted the drawing for those who had paid their annual dues. Caroline PUNCHES and Barb Jepsen were winners.

Following the drawing, the meeting adjourned at 1:20 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Lin Nary
