The March Program was a panel discussion on Title IX. The panel included school Superintendent White from Douglas County, Superintendent Workman from Lyon County and Superintendent Stokes Carson City. Questions were prepared by a committee of AAUW members and included topics ranging from athletics, sexual harassment, bullying and assault, comparable facilities, access to course offerings, Stem, and Title IX training of staff. The event was held at Western Nevada College in order to provide enough room for guests. The meeting time was set for 7:00, also to provide for more potential public participation.

Each Superintendent was given an opportunity to describe the various issues from the perspective of their school district. Capital Branch member Peggy Wozniak introduced the Title IX to the audience based on her own personal experience as a school superintendent in multiple districts.

Nancy Stiles moderated the discussion posing the questions and requesting additional information when needed. Once the prepared questions had been asked and answered, the panel took additional questions from the audience.

The meeting adjourned at 8:45 P.M.

Respectfully Submitted,
JoAnn Carpenter
Secretary
